

IMENCO

Hydraulic Compensators

Imenco hydraulic compensators are made from polycarbonate tubing, aluminium flanges and stainless steel springs. They are prepared for installation of optional warning compensation volume sensors. Subcon proximity sensors are normally used. Hydraulic connection(s) are done on top with two JIC 1/2" fittings. All nuts and bolts/rods are stainless steel.

Features

- Lightweight design
- Various volume and pressure capacities
- Spring activated diaphragm

For further information email commercial@imenco.com